22	0	0	459	An important and interesting autograph letter of Admiral Lord Nelson, addressed to the Rev. Wm. Priestly, Lynn Norfolk

St. George, Yarmouth March 8th 1801

Sir,

Being the son of a clergyman myself it must always be grateful to my feelings to endeavour to be useful to the sons of the Church. I have therefore wrote for your son to be sent to my ship from the Redoubt, and Lord St. Vincent has promised me to give your other son a Commission in the Marines, therefore he must now wait patiently, for it may be some months before an opportunity may offer, but he may depend on it. In having thus complied with your wishes I have only to hope that your sons will support, if necessary with their lives our present glorious Constitution both in Church and State love their King, and hate all republics and all republicans; that your sons may be good men which is the high road to be great men, an ornament to their Country and the Comfort of your declining years, Is the fervent wish of Sir your most obedient servant

NELSON AND BRONTE.

Revd. Mr. Priestly.

\* This letter, mounted in oak frame, glazed, was contributed to the Patriotic Fund in Australia during the recent War.*
